Foodstuffs, Protection of—Meat—Unwholesome Food—Ice. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 18, 1912.)

SEC. 10. No meat, fish, bird, fruit, vegetables, milk, or anything for human food or drink, not being then fresh or properly preserved, sound, wholesome, and safe for such use; nor any flesh of any animal which died by disease or which was at the time of its death in a sickly or unwholesome condition; nor the carcass or meat of any calf which was at the date of its death less than four weeks old, or of any lamb which was at the date of its death less than eight weeks old, or of any pig which was at the date of its death less than five weeks old shall be brought within the limits of this municipality nor offered or held for sale as food therein. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $10 for each offense and for each day's continuance or repetition of the offense.

SEC. 11. All dealers in such food supplies as are liable to contamination from dirt or flies, insects, etc., such as milk, meats, fish, vegetables, fruits, candies, and cake, must provide a covering of some suitable material to protect any such food exposed for sale from dust, flies, insects, etc. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $5 for each offense and for each day's continuance or repetition of the offense.

SEC. 12. No ice, naturally or artificially frozen from water, taken from any pond, stream, spring, well, or other source of supply which has been contaminated or is otherwise impure or unwholesome shall be harvested, manufactured, sold, or exposed or offered for sale where such ice may be used in contact with foods or beverages. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $10 for each offense and for each day's continuance or repetition of the offense.

Domestic Animals—Disposal of Dead Bodies. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 18, 1912.)

SEC. 13. Upon the death of any animal within the town of North Hempstead, except when the same is killed for food, the owner or person having control thereof shall immediately notify the board of health or health officer, and remove the carcass to such place as the said board or officer may direct, and there properly dispose of the same in a manner approved by the board of health. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $10 for each offense, and for each day's continuance or repetition of the offense.

Meat—Slaughterhouses, Markets, etc. (Reg. Bd. of H., June 18, 1912.)

SEC. 14. No person or persons, without the consent of the board of health, shall build or use any slaughterhouse within the limits of this municipality, and the keeping and slaughtering of all cattle, sheep, and swine and the preparation and keeping of all meat, fish, birds, or other animal food shall be in the manner best adapted to secure and continue their wholesomeness as food, and every butcher or other person owning, leasing, or occupying any place, room, or building wherein any cattle, sheep, or swine have been or are killed or dressed, and every person being the owner, lessee, or occupant of any room or stable wherein any animals are kept, or of any market, public or private, shall cause such place, room, building, stable, or market, and their yards and appurtenances, to be thoroughly cleansed and purified, and all offal, blood, fat, garbage, refuse, and unwholesome and offensive matter to be removed therefrom at least once in every 24 hours after the use thereof for any of the purposes herein referred to, and shall also at all times keep all woodwork, save floors and counters, in any building, place, or premises aforesaid thoroughly painted or whitewashed; and the floors of such building, place, or premises shall be so constructed as to prevent blood or foul liquids or washings from settling in the earth beneath. Any violation of this ordinance shall subject the offending party to a penalty of $10 for each offense and for each day's continuance or repetition of the offense.
